If you're looking for a stable source of income during retirement, consider an annuity. As a savings tool backed by insurance companies, an annuity can be an attractive investment option for individuals over 50 as they approach retirement or during their retirement years.

Annuities also offer less risk than other investment vehicles. They aren't subject to market fluctuations or recessions that can diminish the value of your stock, bond, or cash investments. Income from annuities can also ensure continued financial security if you live longer than expected and find your Social Security, pension, or other retirement funds aren't providing enough income to live comfortably.

Take this quiz to learn more about annuities and explore how they could be an option for your impending or current retirement.

Annuities are distributed by Blueprint Income, LLC. Guarantees are subject to the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurer. Blueprint Income, LLC, is a licensed fixed annuity agency in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Blueprint Income, LLC, does not advise clients on the purchase of non-fixed annuity products. The information presented here is not intended to be a recommendation to purchase a fixed annuity, immediate annuity, longevity annuity, or Qualified Longevity Annuity Contract. The contract features described may not be current and may not apply in the state in which you reside. Insurance companies often issue contracts that are "state-specific." Insurance companies also change their products and information often and without notice. Annuities are subject to the terms and conditions of the specific contract issued by the insurer, are not FDIC or NCUA insured, are not bank guaranteed, may lose value, and are not a savings deposit product. Please call (800) 484-0469 if you have any questions or concerns. The information provided on this website is not written or intended as specific tax or legal advice. Blueprint Income employees and representatives are not authorized to give tax or legal advice. You are encouraged to seek advice from your own tax or legal counsel. You should always consult your own financial planning, tax, and legal advisors to determine if a fixed annuity, immediate annuity, longevity annuity, or Qualified Longevity Annuity Contract is appropriate for your financial situation.
