An RV vacation is filled with so many options. Want to hit every national park in the Southwest? Relax for a few months near the Gulf's beautiful beaches? Plan the ultimate family vacation by teaching your grandkids the joys of camping? With RVing, it's all right at your fingertips (or right at your steering wheel).

There are so many opportunities available, those new to RVing might feel intimidated choosing a destination and an RV model. How do you know which kind of traveler you are and what your RV needs will be? Read on to find out.
